Vsebina:

Predmet je neposredno podrejen cilju priprave doktorske disertacije in se pri tem osredotoča na proces priprave dispozicije zanjo. Ker temelji priprava dispozicije predvsem na individualnem delu, zahteva obsežno individualno zbiranje, urejanje in študij virov. Doktorski študent mora temeljna znanja za pripravo zahtevnejših teoretskih in raziskovalnih nalog sicer že imeti, v okviru tega predmeta pa se nadgradijo s tistimi, ki so potrebna za pripravo načrta (dispozicije) doktorske disertacije.

Ker je doktorsko delo nujno izrazito ustvarjalo in inovativen projekt, saj mora prispevati samostojen doprinos k obstoječem znanstvenem znanju in ne le (re)kombinacijo že obstoječih znanj, bo v prvem delu izvedbe predmeta izpostavljena teorija in praksa ustvarjalnosti – tako na splošni ravni, kot na aplikaciji na zahteve doktorskega študija in doktorske disertacije. Oblika dela pri tem temelji na kombinaciji predavanj, individualnega študija in (pisnega) reflektiranja relevantne literature ter seminarskega dela.

V nadaljevanju sledi neposredno delo na pripravi dispozicije. Študenti se pri tem najprej seznanijo z možnimi formami dispozicije, tako da na praktičnih primerih kritično analizirajo razpoložljive dispozicije in disertacije. Nato pa prek intenzivnega individualnega dela in soočanja idej na seminarju oblikujejo osnutke svojih dispozicij in so pri tem posebej pozorni na naslednje elemente dispozicije:

- formulacija in utemeljitev relevantnosti raziskovalnega vprašanja in ciljev disertacije,
- formulacija hipotez,
- izbira in utemeljitev raziskovalnih metod,

Content (Syllabus outline):

The course is directly subordinated to the goal of preparing a doctoral dissertation and focuses on the process of preparing a disposition for it. As the preparation of the disposition is based primarily on individual work, it requires extensive individual collection, editing and study of resources. The doctoral student must already possess the basic knowledge for the preparation of more demanding theoretical and research tasks, but within this course they are upgraded with those required for the preparation of the disposition of the doctoral dissertation.

Since the doctoral thesis is distinctively a highly creative and innovative project, as it must present an independent contribution to existing scientific knowledge and not just a (re) combination of existing knowledge, the first part of the course will highlight the theory and practice of creativity - both on a general level as well as the application of the doctoral study and dissertation requirements. The form of work is based on a combination of lectures, individual study and (written) reflection on relevant literature and seminar work.

This is followed by direct work on the preparation of the disposition. Students first become acquainted with possible forms of a disposition by critically analyzing available dispositions and dissertations on practical examples. Through intensive individual work and confrontation of ideas at the seminar, they afterwards form drafts of their dispositions, paying special attention to the following elements of a disposition:

- formulation and substantiation of the relevance of the research question and the goals of the dissertation,
- formulation of hypotheses,
- selection and justification of research methods,

- pregled dosedanje relevantne literature in drugih virov, pomembnih za disertacijo,
- načrtovanje dela na doktorski disertaciji,
- strukturiranje doktorske disertacije,
- ocena, v katerih elementih bi lahko disertacija prinesla nova znanstvena spoznanja.

Dolga, negotova in zahtevna pot od dispozicije do disertacije – ključni izzivi in zanke.

Diskusija – Zaključne opombe, komentarji in nasveti za nadaljnje delo na doktoratu.

- review of current relevant literature and other sources relevant to the dissertation,
- planning work on a doctoral dissertation
- structuring the doctoral dissertation,
- assessment of the elements in which the dissertation could bring new scientific findings.

A long, uncertain and difficult path from the disposition of the doctoral thesis – crucial challenges and pitfalls.

Discussion – closing remarks, comments and suggestions for further work on thesis.
