INFORMATION FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

MEALS

Everyone with student status in Slovenia is entitled to student meals. The cost of the meal is partially covered by the Republic of Slovenia and partially by the student. Every student has to register for food coupons. Erasmus+ coordinator will help you in this process. Once you are successfully registered you can use food coupons in various restaurants. You can find more information and the list of restaurants on the web page Študentska prehrana. In Nova Gorica you can register to KGŠ. There are a few rules about using food coupons. Subsidised meals for students are offered only between 8:00 and 21:00 every day except between 15 July and 15 August. Coupons can be used maximum twice a day with at least four-hour break between meals. When proving ID at the purchase of a student meal, you can use your phone; however, you still need to show your ID to confirm that the phone is yours.

WHAT CAN YOU SEE AND DO IN LJUBLJANA AND SURROUNDINGS

Slovenia's capital is by all accounts a special discovery. Its pleasant atmosphere, friendly locals, wide variety of events and a host of cultural and historical curiosities will make you want to come back for more. Boasting architect Jože Plečnik's indelible mark, Ljubljana reveals a bounty of fascinating Renaissance, Baroque and Secession style buildings in its historic core. It could be right here where you meet your new friends in some of the many bars, inns and restaurants. Both its residents and numerous visitors perceive Ljubljana as a city built on a human scale. Despite the fact that it ranks among the mid-sized European cities, it has preserved its small-town friendliness and, at the same time, it has everything that all the larger capitals have. In the winter its dreamy central European character prevails, while the summer brings out its relaxed Mediterranean feel.

WHAT CAN YOU SEE AND DO IN NOVA GORICA AND SURROUNDINGS

Nova Gorica is the “youngest Slovenian” town. It is a small town at the border with Italy that has been the heart of the Goriška region for seven decades. It has grown after World War II as a substitute of Gorizia, which remained on the other side of the border. It is a town with a mild climate, green and blooming all year round, young, lively and friendly to the local people and visitors from all over the world. As a unique example in Europe, the two towns are located at the border with no border crossings and living in greater co-existence on all levels. (Source: novagorica-turizem.com)

OUR CULTURE:FESTIVITIES&GASTRONOMY

Slovenia has a rich cultural heritage that is reflected in its festivities, gastronomy, and entertainment.

FESTIVITIES

1. Prešeren Day (Prešernov dan): Celebrated on February 8th, this is Slovenia's cultural holiday in honor of the greatest Slovenian poet, France Prešeren. Festivities include cultural events, poetry readings, and concerts.
2. Easter (Velika noč): Like in many European countries, Easter is an important celebration in Slovenia. People attend church services, decorate eggs, and enjoy festive meals with family.
3. St. Martin's Day (Martinovo): Celebrated on November 11th, this is a wine-related holiday. It marks the day when grape juice officially becomes wine. Many events include wine tastings, traditional dishes, and celebrations in wine-growing regions.

GASTRONOMY

1. Kranjska Klobasa: This is a traditional Slovenian sausage, often served with mustard and fresh horseradish. It has a distinct flavor and is a popular dish at festivals and events.
2. Potica: A traditional Slovenian dessert, potica is a rolled dough filled with various sweet fillings like walnuts, poppy seeds, or tarragon. It's often served during holidays and special occasions.
3. Idrijski Žlikrofi: These are small, delicate dumplings filled with potatoes, bacon, and onions. Žlikrofi are a specialty of the Idrija region and are typically served with a savory sauce.
4. Slovenian Wine: Slovenia has a rich wine culture, and the country produces high-quality wines. Visit the wine regions like Primorska, Posavje, and Podravje to taste local varieties.
